

DEATHS.

—“Bob” Lynn, who was one of the few remaining threads that bound Cincinnati to her “open gambling past,” died of pneumonia Tuesday night at the Burnett House, in that city. The members of his family were present. Robert Lynn was one of the greatest poker players that ever sat at a table. He was born in Maysville, Ky., and before becoming a gambler was a carriage painter by occupation. He amassed a fortune.

—Dr. Robt. Parks, the well-known veterinary surgeon, died at his home in Covington, Wednesday, of cancer of the stomach. Dr. Parks was aged about 55 years and lived in this county for a number of years. He was a native of England and first came to this county to be herdsman for the great shorthorn of Mr. E. K. Thomas.

He is survived by his wife and two daughters. Mrs. Mary Forman, of this city, is a niece.

—Capt. Boyle O. Rhodes, one of Danville's most prominent and influential citizens, died Wednesday of inflammation of the bowels.

MARRIAGES.

—Mr. Thomas Hughes Atkinson, of Montgomery, and Miss Anna Garth Tarr, of this county, were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tarr, near Paris. Elder Carey E. Morgan officiated, and only the immediate family were present. The couple left on the evening train for Washington, New York and other Eastern cities.

The bride is one of Bourbon's most popular and estimable young ladies, and we congratulate the worthy groom is winning her for a life partner.

Announcement.

I wish to state to the public that I have located in this city, and have opened a cigar factory in the Ficklin building, opposite the courthouse.

I will soon put on the market a line of strictly high-grade cigars, and respectfully ask the dealers of Paris to give my goods a trial.

Mr. Elmer Foote is my city salesman and will call on the trade within the next few days.

Trusting that I will be given the support of both the dealers and smokers of good cigars, I am,

Very respectfully,
P. F. MURRAY.

MILLERSBURG.

Mr. A. J. Hitt continues very ill.

Mrs. O. W. Corrington does not improve.

Mrs. Warner, of Lexington, is the guest of C. B. Smith.

Miss Alice Booth, of Carlisle, is the guest of her brother, J. D. Booth.

Mrs. Robt. Osborne, of Tuckahoe, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John R. Madison.

Miss Sallie Murphy, of Lexington, spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. W. G. McClintock.

S. C. Carpenter shucked 300 shocks of corn Monday with a shredder that averaged fifteen barrels per acre.

R. M. Caldwell returned Monday from Germantown, where he gave Spinsters Return Saturday evening to a large audience for the K. of P. lodge. He left Wednesday for Bardonia to give an entertainment Thanksgiving evening.

The marriage of Mr. Geo. Howard to Miss Nettie Howard was solemnized Wednesday afternoon, Elder F. P. King officiating. There were about 25 friends present, and after the ceremony the contracting parties left for their country home in this county.

The reception given by Mrs. C. Bruce Smith on Wednesday afternoon was quite a success. There was about 200 guests invited and a majority were present, receiving hours from 2 to 5 o'clock p. m. In the receiving line were Mrs. C. Bruce Smith, Mrs. Warren, of Lexington, Ky., Mrs. Dave E. Clarke, Mrs. James M. Caldwell and Mrs. I. D. Best. The home was darkened and plainly but handsomely decorated. Penola was served by Mrs. W. F. Carpenter. The guests were then ushered into the diningroom where refreshments were enjoyed, and upon leaving the diningroom each guest had a souvenir pinned upon them by Mrs. Joel W. Mock, and chocolate then served by Mrs. S. C. Carpenter and Miss Annie Smith.

AMUSEMENTS.

—The “Isle of Spice,” the comic opera success, is underlined for the Grand.

—The “Great Lafayette,” is a coming attraction at the Grand. If you have never seen him, you have never seen his equal.

—The first presentations in Lexington of the famous festival drama, “Parsifal,” will occur on Monday and Tuesday, November 20 and 21. Text, music and scenery are united in a vast and mystical symbolization of one of the legends of the Holy Grail, and a company of fifty people is required for the production. In connection with these performances a number of customs which seem strange to American theatre-goers are in evidence. These customs are followed as far as practical in this presentation. One notable exception is in the time of commencing the performance. The curtain rises promptly at 7:45 p. m., and the wait between acts is very brief, thus making it possible to give the entire play and to bring the final curtain down at 11 o'clock. A matinee will be given Tuesday.

How the Gases are Burned
in Buck's
Hot Blast.

Note the upper draft in this stove where the fire pot is supplied with heated air instead of through the lower drafts (the open one) used in most heaters.

That's how the gases are mixed with oxygen directly over the fire. The gases do not escape on the flue.

We also handle the great 20th Century Heater. The Buck's and 20th Century Heaters are the two best made—don't buy until you see this line
